

Adam Douglass is a South Florida based guitarist, composer, and educator. He has performed with Tom Constanten (Grateful Dead, Jefferson Airplane), Charles Neville (the Neville Brothers), Scott Guberman (Phil Lesh & Friends), Kenny Brooks (Ratdog, Charlie Hunter Quartet), and Johnny Radelat (Gary Clark, Jr.). A 6th generation Floridian, Adam spent 20 years in the northeastern United States honing his guitar skills and playing on every stage available, big and small. The Adam Douglass Band draws its repertoire from Adam's favorite styles of music to play: the danceable grooves and beautiful harmony of funk and Motown in addition to the guitar heroics found in many of the subgenres of classic rock.
